

I found the further I ran
The closer I got to know
I did not need to run
at all

The light was always there
Always waiting to share
His light, Son light

You don't need to run
You don't have to go far
Stand still and listen
He knows where you are
Just close your eyes
And open your heart

And you will see...

Star light, moon light
His light, Son light